Put your Spanish to work in real-life situations. Earn academic credit, live with a Spanish family, and visit cultural and historical sites. Spend January 2010 in Sevilla, in the south of sunny Spain. Improve your language skills as you use them to immerse yourself in Spanish culture and history. Our objective is to offer students more intense exposure to the language and culture of Spain, beyond the traditional classroom experience.

The Center for Cross-Cultural Studies in Sevilla is our home base for language instruction and home stays with Spanish families. Students enroll for credit in Spanish Oral Expression and Culture in Southern Spain. The combination of cultural immersion, classroom instruction, native interviews, and family home stays provides participants with a unique language learning experience.

Your January-term in Sevilla offers you an unforgettable home-stay experience, intensive language instruction at an accredited Language and Cultural Institute, and a marvelous opportunity to fully immerse yourself in the rich legacy of the Arabic and Christian influences that forged contemporary Spanish culture. Several walking tours and day trips to near-by points of interest (Ronda, Córdoba, Itálica, museums, Jewish Quarter, Catedral, Alcázar) help round out your experience of the many influences that come together to shape modern Spain. A weekend excursion to Granada (Cathedral, Alhambra, and Generalife Gardens) further highlights and reveals the blending of Moslem, Jewish and Christian cultures, past and present.
